At DisputeSoft, Amanda works as Manager of Marketing & Talent Development, responsible for managing the firm's marketing and recruitment projects, as well as assisting with various HR and office administrative tasks. She researches and generates content for DisputeSoft's website, maintains and expands the firm's CRM program, and oversees the firm's internship and new hire recruitment and onboarding programs.

Amanda graduated from the University of Virginia in 2019 with a B.A. in English. Throughout college, she focused on developing her skills in literary analysis, desktop publishing, and editing. She involved herself in several projects and opportunities that allowed her to grow her design, editing, and marketing skills, such as designing both print and e-book versions of original poetry and working on several marketing initiatives for the 2018 Virginia Festival of the Book.
